• Curtis DeVault has an event scheduled in Bozeman

Status of GIS Talking Points

Board Retreat in Missoula December 2nd - 3rd
• December 2nd/3rd worked for almost everyone so Bob got a quote from the Holiday Inn in Missoula
• It will be held for a half day on Sunday and half day on Monday
• Bob will look into cancellation policy to ensure we can get a refund in case of a storm
• He will send an email to the Board for everyone’s confirmation on those dates
• Jenny will order name tags for new members, but doesn’t know where they came from previously – Gerry will check past invoices to find out

First (of 3) reviews of the proposed MAGIP 2019 budget
• The major unknown is estimated cost of 2019 GeoCon o We need someone on the Conference Planning Committee to estimate costs and revenue
• The cost for Lee Macholz’s services have been minimal so far in 2018 – most of her costs came from the retreat, which has not been held.
• Networking equipment purchased for 2018 GeoCon is reusable so that item doesn’t need to be in the 2019 conference budget;
  o Although it would be prudent to leave some money in the budget for miscellaneous, as-yet unknown technological equipment
• Food costs at 2018 conference were the highest expense – we need to look at other options to reduce food costs or increase registration cost.
• Modification of the MAGIP 2018 budget to include $1,728.00 for web hosting. This is due on November 20th and it is only budgeted for $12
  o In 2015 the budget was $1080 and we paid $2172, so that was probably for two years
  o In 2016 the budget was $12 and we paid $12
  o In 2017 the budget was $12 and we paid $1416
