Website Redesign

Brian is looking into project management websites to organize our task list and manage the redesign. Meghan likes how Asana was organized.

Action Item: Brian will invite the other web subcommittee members, the MAGIP Board, and Lee Macholz to the Web Redesign Group in Asana

Jason discusses his experience working on a web redesign project at work. He recommended surveying the group to decide on a template, etc.

Brian suggested that we look into what services different Wild Apricot partners offer and get some estimates on the costs to take to the MAGIP Board at their next call-in meeting that is scheduled for July 11.

Action Item: Meghan will research services and estimated costs, including rates for maintenance.
